EX-CONVICTS ARE BEING HUNTED IN EVERY DIRECTION.

TRIBUNE TURNED UP NAMES.

First Newspaper to Give Public the Record of the Robbers.

Many New Details in the
Now Famous Bank
Robbery Case.

THE TRIBUNE'S NEWS SERVICE HAS LONG BEEN A MATTER OF COMMENT. ON ALL THE BIG STORIES OF THE DAY THE TRIBUNE ENDEAVORS TO GIVE COMPLETE AND ACCURATE ACCOUNTS. IT IS THE ONLY PAPER IN ALAMEDA COUNTY THAT GIVES THE ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES, BESIDES GIVING A MOST COMPLETE LOCAL AND SUBURBAN SERVICE.

SINCE THE BIG BANK ROBBERY WAS COMMITTED ALL THE NEWSPAPERS ABOUT THE BAY HAVE MADE EVERY EFFORT TO SECURE COMPLETE DETAILS OF THE THEFT. IT REMAINED, HOWEVER, FOR THE TRIBUNE TO BE THE FIRST PAPER IN CALIFORNIA TO GIVE THE NAMES OF THE ROBBERS AND A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF THEM. IN NEWSPAPER PARLANCE THE TRIBUNE SECURED ONE OF THE BIGGEST "SCOOPS" OF THE YEAR. THIS, HOWEVER, IS SIMPLY IN LINE WITH THE TRIBUNE'S POLICY TO GIVE THE FIRST AND BEST NEWS.

The exclusive publication in THE TRIBUNE yesterday of the fact that John Zimmerman and Thomas A. Collins, two ex-convicts, were the men who robbed John E. Daly and Frank Roche, messengers of the Central Bank of this city, near Stege, one week yesterday, was the first notice which the public received that the detectives working on the case were looking after some particular individuals for the purpose of bringing home to them conviction of the bold highway robbery.

That announcement is followed today by the presentation of the portraits of the robbers which are known to be correct likenesses of the suspects.

Instead, therefore, of having the search for the robbers prosecuted by only a few officers and detectives, the hue and cry may now be taken up by thousands, so that now wherever the robbers may turn they must fear detection staring them in the face.

An impression obtains in some circles that the robbers have put many miles between them and the scene of their outlawry, but that will avail them little, because their photographs have been sent to all parts of the country, and unless they court permanent seclusion, and assume unnatural disguises, which are always unwelcome to the average criminal, they stand in constant danger of being apprehended.

This danger is all the greater for the reason that rewards for their capture and conviction, aggregating $2,250, have been offered and this will stimulate not alone professional thief-catchers, but hosts of amateur detectives and even private citizens in an effort to run down the highway-men.

MAY BE AROUND HERE.

There are not a few, however, who hold that the robbers are yet in this vicinity and among these are Sheriff Barnett, Sheriff Veale of Contra Costa county, Chief Hodgkins and the Pinkerton detectives, all of whom are bending their energies in searching the haunts of sin and criminals in San Francisco and Alameda county. This force of peace officers is now illimitably increased by ob-

NAMED BY SECRETARY OF STATE.

Curry Selects Charles Clear For License Chief--Assistants.

SACRAMENTO, March 28.—Secretary of State C. F. Curry has appointed
THOMAS A. COLLINS.

HIS STAR WILL BE TAKEN

Officer Sill Must Resign From Force Or Be Discharged.

Policeman Sill, who has been the target of more than one set of politicians, is at last to lose his star, and once more become a private citizen. His resignation has been asked for by the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, and if he does not hand in the document, with his signature attached, he will, according to the present programme, be summarily dismissed from the police force.

All the Commissioners are pledged to secrecy in the matter. The cause of the removal of Sill is stated in the hackneyed phrase of "for the good of the department."

President McElroy of the Police Commissioners refuses to discuss the matter. He merely reiterates the phrase, "for the good of the department."

The real cause is said to be in the accusations made against Sill that he was with ex-Sergeant of Police Charles E. Clark when the latter invaded Becker's market and took a bain.

The accusations made by Policeman Shannon and others at the time of Sill's trial on a charge that he had participated in the thefts for which Clark, Hammerton, Andrews and Stahl were dismissed from the force, had a great effect on Mayor Olney. While the evidence, looked at from a judicial standpoint, would not convict Sill of wrongdoing, the inference was that he was not altogether blameless.

Since then Sill's conduct has not been such as to meet with the approval of his superior officers, and he will either be compelled to resign or be dismissed.

Sill had a long talk with Mayor Olney, which resulted in an ultimatum being pronounced. Neither the Mayor nor Sill will discuss what took place within the chambers of the Mayor.

The one thing definite is that Sill will lose his star before the new administration is ushered in.

The friends which have heretofore sprung up as if by magic in Sill's behalf have again sprung up and are making a desperate fight to retain him in office. The greatest pressure is being brought to bear on Commissioner Turner. Turner has agreed with McElroy and the Mayor, however, to let Sill out.

MAINE WAS BLOWN UP IN THE HAVANA HARBOR BY THE MISTAKE OF CUBANS.

Anarchist Declares He Made the Infernal Ma- chines For Cubans. They Were to Have Been Used Against the Spanish Ships.

NEW YORK, March 28.—That the battleship Maine, through an error, was destroyed by a bomb of his manufacture, was the statement made by Gessler Rosseau in the Tombs prison today. Rosseau was convicted yesterday of having sent explosives to the Cunard line pier, this city, in May, 1903. He made the following statement today:

WATCHED CONTEST.
"For several years while the Cuban patriots were struggling against Weyler, I watched the contest with deep interest and sympathy. I decided to go to Jacksonville and do what I could to assist the revolutionists. I started from St. Louis, where I had been living during the early part of 1897.

"Before taking a train for the South I got together the material for the construction of two exploding machines of tremendous power, so arranged that they could be wound up and left in a selected place, with the certainty that they would go off with terrible destruction within a few hours.

CUBAN LEADERS.
"At New Orleans I rented a room and put the boxes together, after which I went on to Jacksonville. There I became acquainted with a party of Cuban leaders who were planning a filibustering expedition. They had engaged the Destroyer, a small vessel, to take them to Cuba, along with a number of American and European adventurers who were anxious to strike a blow for Cuban freedom.

"Several of the leaders of the party are men now well known, and I will not mention their names, although I have among my papers a list of them all.

SPANISH WARSHIPS.
"I suggested to them that they use my machine to destroy Spanish warships in the harbor of Havana, and in other ports on the coast of the island.

They readily seized upon the idea, and when the Destroyer sailed with the filibusters they took my two machines with them.

"It was my intention to go along with the party, so as to direct the work of sinking the Spanish ships, but they dissuaded me, urging that I could be of greater use in Jacksonville preparing other machines if the first proved successful.

"It was planned to have some members of the revolutionary party join the Spanish navy so as to get the machines aboard. If that failed it was decided to fasten one of the boxes to the hull of a ship, under the water line, for I had constructed the machines so they could be exploded under the water.

"That was late in the fall of 1897. The next spring the Maine was destroyed.

MADE A MISTAKE.
"Only one man in the secret of the machine returned to America. I saw him some time after the war with Spain had begun.

"He told me he had nothing to do with the boxes after reaching Cuba, but had been told a mistake had been made.

"The man who had been entrusted with the task of destroying a Spanish vessel attempted to fasten a box during the night to one of Alfonso's warships and blundered into blowing up the Maine.

"I was told that the man, immediately after learning of the error he had made, committed suicide."

Rosseau said he had attempted to blow up the statue of Frederick the Great at Washington, because he did not wish to see the statue of a king in America. He added that he was not an anarchist, nor a nihilist, and that he had made no effort to supply exploding machines to the Russians.

PEOPLE HUSTLE INTO CELLARS TO SAVE LIFE

Tornado Sweeps Down Upon the Village of Lewisburg and Several Are Injured

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 28.—A despatch from Appleton, Minn., says that the severe persons injured as a result of a tornado which destroyed the village of Lewisburg, one is fatally hurt. Every business house in town was either demolished or badly damaged, and most of the houses in the village were uninjured.

From Breckenridge, on the Waterloo branch of the Great Northern a relief train was dispatched to Lewisburg as soon as news of the storm was received. Most of the people escaped serious injury by getting into their cellars.

Frederick Moen, who was in his cellar, was carried 200 feet, and though seriously injured will recover.

The tornado was preceded by hail. It is not believed that much damage was done outside of town.

WITTMAN HAS SUED.

Ex-Chief of Police Wants to Be Given Position Again.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—George W. Wittman brought suit in the Superior Court today to be restored to the office of Chief of Police, applying for a writ of mandamus to be issued compelling the Police Commissioners to admit him to that post. The papers were filed by Julius Kahn, attorney for the deposed Chief.

The petition is based on the legal grounds that Wittman was suspended from office on February 15 an removed on March 24 "unlawfully, wrongfully and without cause and without probable cause." No personalities are introduced in the brief document and all three of the Commissioners are joined as defendants.

Fire Causes Panic With 300 GIRLS.

NEW YORK, March 28.—A trifling girls crowded down this stairway, falling blaze in the shirtwaist factory of Maxcy and trampling upon each other, and Roth, which occupied the five upper floors before all were out a dozen of them fainting of a six-story building in Walker street, from fright and slight injuries.

Today, started a panic among the 300 girls. The panic was increased by the conduct employed there. There is but one exit of some of the men employed, who besides the fire escapes, a narrow, steeply-trampled on the women in their own stairway.

servant citizens, any one of whom is liable at any moment to run across and identify the outlaws from the pictures of them which appear today in THE TRIBUNE and which will later be published in the leading papers of the country.

This is a gratifying condition of affairs, because, it rarely happens that, within a week after the commission of a crime of this character, the identity of the criminals is so well established as it is in this case.

BIG REWARD OFFERED.

Vice-President Palmanteer of the Central Bank, today formally announced that the reward offered by Sheriff Veale of Contra Costa county would be increased to a sum which would justify most energetic effort on the part of the detectives. These detectives, however, it may be stated, are not dependent upon this reward for requital for their services. They

Japanese Administration Declares Liao River Open

NEWCHWANG, March 28.—The Japanese administration today declared the Liao river open, and twenty-two vessels entered the port of Yinkow. The river has been practically free from ice for the past few days, but steamers were not permitted to enter until it had become absolutely certain that all danger from ice had passed.

An unusual rush of traffic is looked for, as this year's campaign has made the position of Newchwang more important than ever. The steamers entering Yinkow today include six Japanese transports and one hospital ship, which have been waiting for a long time at Port Daini, and the others are merchantmen, which have been gathering at Taku and Chefoo.

Vast quantities of stores will be trans-shipped at Yinkow and carried in trucks up the Liao river. It is expected that 50,000 Russian prisoners and sick and wounded Japanese will be sent to Japan by way of Yinkow.

Ernest Thompson Seton was in his room at the hotel in Red Wing, Minnesota. He pushed the button and heard the water ring, and another ten minutes went and no water. Another push, another wait, and—Mr. Seton was just about ready to rush down to the office with a scolding rush, when there was a knock at the door. Mr. Seton yelled "Come in." A young man meekly peeked in and asked: "Did you ring sir?"

"Did I ring?"

"I beg your pardon sir, I thought I heard the bell."

"You thought you thought—" and Mr. Seton wilted into a chair.

"I may have been mistaken," said the young man. "You see, I was interested in reading a book—so interested, I forgot everything."

"Well, what kind of a book is this?" inquired Mr. Seton. "What kind of a book were you reading?"

"Here it is, sir. A gentleman loaned it to me a little while ago. And the boy held up 'Two Little Savages' by Ernest Thompson Seton."

Mr. Seton handed the boy a quarter, and said, no he didn't ring—it must have been next door—so sorry to have disturbed him.

Franklin-street property purchased.

J. S. Myers shows his faith in the future of Franklin street by the purchase of seventy-five feet frontage on the east side of Franklin street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets.

Improvements on the property are of nominal value. It is the intention of the purchaser to improve the property with substantial buildings at once.

The recent developments on Franklin street show an indication of that street becoming a substantial business thoroughfare. Within the last year Barker & Kline, wholesale plumbers, have built a fine building, which they occupy at Ninth and Franklin streets. The same firm has built another brick building for the accommodation of the wholesale firm of Hermann & Co. of San Francisco. The California Carriage Company has located its main street between Eleventh and Twelfth streets. The State Savings Bank has purchased and fitted up a modern office and banking rooms on the corner of Thirteenth and Franklin streets.

RUSSIAN PRINCE BESIEGED

PALACE OF THE KAHN IS SURROUNDED IN A CAUCASIAN PROVINCE.

ASKHARAD, Caucasasia, Russia, March 28.—Refugees from Kuchan, Persia, report that the Palace of the Khan is besieged by an armed mob. The popular resentment against him is intense in consequence of allegations that he has been exploiting the people. The refugees charge that Mohammedans from Baku are responsible for exciting the population against the Christians.

OPERATE ON JACK LONDON

Jack London, the author of the "Call of the Wild," and lately candidate for Mayor of Oakland on the Socialist ticket is now in a sanatorium at Twelfth and Jefferson streets recovering from a severe operation which he underwent a few days ago. The attendant reported last night that he was doing very well indeed and that in a few days he would be able to stand the removal to his home at 2116 Telegraph avenue.

The famous writer has been suffering for some time with a stomach trouble arising from an injury which he received while on one of his numerous trips in search of information as to social and industrial conditions of the country which he wished to have at first hand.

The ailment has been giving him some trouble for quite awhile and his physician has been apprehensive that serious results would follow.

Recently it was decided that the operation should be performed and the patient was taken to a sanatorium where he is now convalescing.

London has lived a strenuous life for several years during his travels in the far north and through this country to say nothing of the sea life he led for a while and his subsequent trips to the old world and to the Orient. He has been given to out door life and his vigorous constitution has stood him in good stead in the present crisis.

FALL INTO HANDS OF INSURGENTS

The following is a good story told of Ernest Thompson Seton, who will

COMPLETE HISTORY OF THE RUSSO-JAPANESE RELATIONS WHICH RESULTED IN THE WAR!

RUSSIA REFUSED

- 1-To include in the treaty an obligation to respect the territorial integrity of Manchuria.
- 2-To withdraw the inhibition against using Korean territory for strategic purposes.

PARIS, March 28.—The Associated Press is in a position to complete the diplomatic history of the Russo-Japanese relations, resulting in the war, by giving to the world the exact text of Russia's final reply to Japan, dated February 3, 1904, which has never before been made public.

Baron Rosen, former Russian Minister to Japan, did not have an opportunity of presenting the note to Baron Komura, Japanese foreign minister, as it was not delivered to him until February 7, the day after he had been informed of the rupture.

Russia has always claimed that the Japanese government, having decided to break off negotiations and begin hostilities, deliberately held up the message at Tokyo until Mr. Kurino, former Japanese Minister at St. Petersburg, could deliver the instructions sent to him February 5 to sever diplomatic relations.

Japan, on the contrary, contended that the contents of the reply having been substantially communicated by Foreign Minister Lansdowne to Mr. Kurino, and being unacceptable on the main issue, it was useless for Japan to wait any longer.

THE PROPOSITION.

The text of the proposition follows: 1.—A mutual engagement to respect the independence and territorial integrity of Korea.

2.—An engagement on the part of Russia not to impede the commercial or industrial undertakings of Japan in Korea, nor oppose her measures for safeguarding such interests.

3.—Recognition by Russia of Japan's preponderating interests in Korea, and her rights to offer advice and assistance tending to the improvement of the administration of Korea.

4.—A mutual obligation not to use any part of Korean territory for strategic purposes, nor undertake on the coast of Korea any military works which menace free navigation of the Korean straits.

RIGHT TO SEND TROOPS.

5.—Recognition by Russia of Japan's right to send troops to Korea in accordance with the preceding articles for the suppression of insurrections and disorder calculated to create international complications.

6.—An engagement by Russia to respect the rights and privileges acquired by Japan, as well as other powers, in Manchuria through treaties with China, Japan to recognize Manchuria and the littoral as beyond her sphere of interest.

7.—A mutual agreement not to impede the junction of the Korean and eastern China railroads when they have reached the Yalu river.

8.—That this agreement supplant all previous agreements between Russia and Japan respecting Korea.

9.—The desirability, if possible, of creating a neutral zone in Korea.

RUSSIA'S DIGNITY.

A careful comparison of the above and preceding exchanges, all of which heretofore have been printed, fully confirms the fact that Russia, from the first to the last, insisted that it was inconsistent with her dignity to include in a special treaty with Japan an obligation to respect the territorial integrity of China in Manchuria, re-linquishing in the instructions sent to Mr. Kurino which were accompanied by a note of explanation to Japan, that Russia's position in Manchuria concerned first China and then all the other powers having commercial interests there, and again pointing out the declarations already made by Russia to foreign cabinets of her intention so long as the occupation of Manchuria continued to recognize the sovereignty and the binding force of the treaties contracted by the powers with the Pekin government.

RUSSIA'S REPLY.

With the exception of a rearrangement and some slight verbal changes, the first five articles identical with those of Russia's original reply of October 3, 1903. Russia made three concessions in the final note, as follows:

1.—The withdrawal of the provision of the Russian note of January 6, 1904, declining to recognize the settlement rights in Manchuria acquired under treaties with China, a point on which Japan laid great stress. These rights Russia claimed were acquired by Japan under cover of treaties negotiated by the United States.

2.—Recedence from insistence on the proposition for a neutral zone in Northern Korea, but again putting forward its desirability.

3.—Acceptance of the stipulation in Article 3 of Japan's original propositions regarding the junction of the Korean and Manchurian railroads.

RUSSIA REFUSED.

Russia refused:

1.—To include in the treaty an obligation to respect the territorial integrity of Manchuria.

2.—To withdraw the inhibition against using Korean territory for strategic purposes.

The note, it is claimed, proves conclusively that Russia hoped to prolong the negotiations.

Russia's Nobles FRIGHTENED.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 28.—The action of the nobility of the Government of Moscow at the meeting held yesterday, in urging the necessity for some measure of popular representation, while taking a distinct stand against a constitutional government of the kind enjoyed by the nations of Western Europe, introduced the first organized conservative element in the situation.

Most of the nobles are landed proprietors who have become greatly alarmed by the peasant movement, which is threatening property in the country, and they will undoubtedly try to rally to their support the city property elements, all of which they claim are endangered by the coming tide of lawlessness.

The nobles urge that the time has come for co-operation with the Government for mutual protection, pointing out that the strikes in the cities, by sending thousands of workmen filled with revolutionary ideas back to their villages, besides introducing political ideas among the peasants, only increases the latter's demand for land.

In many districts the landlords are organizing guards to protect their property at their own expense, the troops which the Government is able to send being insufficient.

VILLAGE AND BURN.

Roving bands of peasants continue to pillage, burn and murder in the Cherny Government, and in Tamboff, Kazan and other governments in the south. The few troops here and there are powerless.

The whole country is affected more or less. The parish priests, under instructions from the Holy Synod, are doing all possible to quiet the peasants, but without making any appreciable impression. With warm weather a crisis will come, especially if it is accompanied by orders for another extensive mobilization.

CONDITIONS WORSE.

In the meantime the situation in the Caucasus is growing worse. A state bordering on civil war exists in the Kuban territory, where the population has been armed for a collision with the soldiers.

In the Georgia, Mingrelia and Kutais territories the red flag of revolt has been raised.

At Yalta, Crimea, after the population had wrecked the vodka shops, police quarters, etc., warships were sent from Sebastopol and marines were landed as if in a hostile country.

The news of the bomb outrages in Poland and the open demonstrations in Finland against conscription are both regarded as bad and significant signs.

ROOSEVELT WILL ACCEPT

PROPOSITION OF DOMINICAN GOVERNMENT AGREEABLE TO HIM.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—President Roosevelt has decided to accept the proposition of the Dominican government, made through Minister Dawson for the control of the finances of that republic, with a view to setting aside a portion of the revenues of the republic for the payment of its debts.

The officers who will collect the money and hold it will be appointed by the Dominican government, but the names of the men selected will be referred to this government for approval.

"SIGN OF THE FOUR" AT YE LIBERTY

The first production on the coast of A. Conan Doyle's intense dramatic story, "The Sign of the Four," was given at Ye Liberty Playhouse last night by an excellent company selected from among the many talented members of Bishop's Thirty Players.

While almost melodramatic at times, still the splendid phrasing given the various characters by the company, made all of the situations plausible, and the large Monday night audience was held in almost breathless interest from the beginning to the ending of this excellent drama.

Of course, the central figure of interest is that most interesting of all figures in fiction, Sherlock Holmes, excellently played by J. H. Gilmore, who seemingly fits the role in every particular. All of the other characters are splendidly played, particularly the Pegleg of Robert Elliott and the John Watson of Frank MacViears. Miss Elsie Edmond and Miss Eleanor Gordon are also as charming as ever. Although accustomed to elaborate scenic effects at Ye Liberty, the production

GEORGE GRIFFITH DIES SUDDENLY

Death has claimed George H. Griffith, a well-known jeweler of this city. The cause of his death was coronary. He spent the evening with his nephew, T. S. Wallace, of 1230 Thirteenth avenue, returned to his home and retired, evidently dying shortly afterwards, as the light was still burning when the body was discovered by his nephew.

Griffith returned from Boulder Creek, to which place the family were preparing to move, at 5 o'clock, only to find his husband had passed away.

Mr. Griffith has been a resident of this city for the past ten years, and it was his intention to dispose of his jewelry business in the course of the next few weeks, preparatory to moving to Boulder Creek.

Mr. Griffith was fifty-four years of age, and leaves a wife and daughter and two nephews, Dr. Wright, the well-known dentist, and T. S. Wallace of East Oakland, to mourn him.

The coroner has charge of the remains.

FOLLOWS SISTER IN DEATH

SUDDEN PASSING OF MISS DOROTHY S. MILLER AT LOS ANGELES.

News of the death of his sister, Dorothy S. Miller, was received from Los Angeles this morning by Judge B. F. Ogden. This was his second sister to pass away within a few months, and has robbed him of the only two he had, and upon whom he looked as his children. In reality they were only his half sisters, his mother having married a second time, but they had been together a great deal, and the attachment could not have been stronger.

Dorothy S. and Rosalie B. Miller, until a few months ago conducted a kindergarten at 1586 Valdez street. The work, however, were upon them, and Rosalie broke down under it, and an attack of pneumonia catching her in her weakened state, carried her off. The two sisters were inseparable, and after the death of her sister Dorothy gave up her work here to accept a position at Los Angeles in the same kind of work, and to have the companionship of her mother, who lives there. Seemingly when she left here she was in the best of health, but last night Judge Ogden received word that she was dangerously ill from a hemorrhage of the lungs, and this morning a telegram told him she was dead.

LONDON, March 28.—When the prospectus of the Japanese war loan of $150,000,000 was issued today the neighborhood of the issuing banks resembled the scenes witnessed on first nights at popular theaters. the unexpected thing. She took all the time and left Kohl without so much as a word.

For a full half-day Kohl wandered restlessly through the streets, seeking a way to recover his joy-inducing beverages, and finally decided that, despite the woman's eyes and her engaging smile, he must have the wine. He repaired to Prosecuting Attorney Leach and asked for a search warrant. He gave the name of the woman as Jane Doe, which means nothing, but gave the address as 1368 Webster street. The police made a descent on the place named and, without finding the name of the woman, recovered the wine. As the officers started to leave with the vinous product under their arms they heard a silvery laugh, but did not stop to investigate.

This morning Police Judge Smith awarded Kohl his precious wine and the young man left the courtroom with the satisfaction of having decided the question of the lady or the bottle.

EX-CONVICTS BEING HUNTED IN EVERY DIRECTION

are all under liberal pay and although under the direction of Pinkerton, really represent the American Bankers' Association, which is determined to leave no stone unturned to make bank robberies a very hazardous occupation.

Speaking on the subject, Vice-President Palmarer said today: "You may announce in THE TRIBUNE that two more rewards will be offered in this case. One thousand dollars will be paid for the arrest and conviction of the robbers.

"An additional one thousand dollars will be offered for the restoration of the $9,000 stolen."

The first reward offered in the case was that by Sheriff Veale of Contra Costa county, who on his own responsibility, offered $250 for the arrest and conviction of the robbers.

The Sheriff has now issued new cards, containing an announcement of the increased reward and has coupled with it a description as well as the portraits of the robbers, and these are being sent all over the country.

IDENTIFYING PORTRAITS.

Photographs of Zimmerman and Collins have been shown to people who are known or believed to have come in contact with the robbers and have been variously identified as having been seen at various times, as if they might have had something to do with crime.

John E. Daly, one of the men who was held up, says that the picture of Collins is that of a man whom he has on various occasions seen hanging about his stable; and he has no doubts that it was in this manner that the information as to the time of the ride with the coin to Point Richmond was obtained.

Frank Roche, who was with Daly when the hold-up took place, says that he believes the picture of Zimmerman is that of the tall man, who pushed the rifle in Daly's face when both messengers were ordered out of the buggy.

IMPORTANT RECOGNITION

The most important identification, however, is that of Morgan, the buggy-washer in Abernethy's stable on San Pablo avenue, near Twenty-seventh street. Morgan had an excellent opportunity to see the face of the man who drove the buggy last Monday week from the Abernethy stable, which has since been identified as the one which figured in the hold-up, enabling one or the robbers to escape from the scene of the crime as it had also doubtless enabled him to reach it.

Abernethy Brothers, who saw the man in question, who gave the name of "Russell," say that the portrait of Collins has a suggestion in the face of the man who rented the rig.

Morgan has been out today in company with some of the detectives endeavoring to locate the party by the name of Russell.

MISS PERRY APPEARS.

The theory that the Abernethy buggy is the one which was used by the second robber in making his escape was strengthened yesterday afternoon about five o'clock by the identification by Miss Perry as the vehicle which she had seen standing near Potrero avenue while the robbery was being committed and which she afterwards saw driven away by one of the highwaymen. Miss Perry, it will be remembered, saw the robbery by means of a field glass from a window in the home of Assemblyman Ellis, which is located on an eminence about a quarter of a mile away from the scene of the crime.

She made her appearance yesterday afternoon at the Abernethy stable and picked out the buggy in question as the only one in the stable which resembled that which she had seen standing near Potrero avenue while the robbers were conducting their assault on the messengers.

There were several horses in the barn at the time and Miss Perry, without prompting from any other person, identified the horse which was rented to "Russell" by Abernethy as the horse she had seen standing near the scene of the robbery.

The animal was covered with a blanket when Miss Perry went to the stable. As soon as the blanket was removed, the identification took place.

PLANNING THE ROBBERY.

The robbery had been in contemplation for a number of months before it was finally accomplished. It was originally conceived by one Charles Henry, who is now an inmate of the county jail in San Francisco, on his way to Folsom prison to serve a sentence of fourteen years for robbery.

Henry, at one time, was an employe of the works of the Pacific Coast Oil Company, which is another name for the Standard Oil Company, at Point Richmond, for the payment of whose men the money which was stolen was sent to Richmond.

He, as well as many other people, knew of the manner in which the money was sent every fortnight to Richmond and conceived the idea of enriching himself by plucking the messengers which had the coin in their charge. He broached the subject to Zimmerman and Collins, and a plan of robbery was devised as far back as last October.

Circumstances militated against the carrying out of the purpose of the robbers. On one occasion, an automobile came unexpectedly into view and broke down as Messenger Daly approached the place in which the robbers lay in hiding.

On another occasion, another buggy besides that of Daly appeared. The second buggy was advancing behind Daly's and the robbers thought that the trailer contained a guard to repel any attack that might be made upon the messenger.

The horse used by the robbers on this second futile attempt to secure the booty was hired in the Dashaway stables in this city.

HENRY IN TROUBLE.

Last December another attempt was to have been made, but the leader of the nefarious enterprise, Henry, was caught in a robbery in San Francisco, and for this he is soon to undergo punishment.

Henry's arrest disconcerted his two pals, but that feeling was of a transitory character only, as the public is well informed.

KNOWN IN OAKLAND.

Zimmerman and Collins were known by many people in this city. Several policemen today informed THE TRIBUNE reporter that they had seen them walking about the streets, but none of the officers would say that they connected either of them with any transaction of a questionable character. Until about two months ago, Collins and perhaps Zimmerman, also, roomed at 1070 Seventh street in this city. That number covers an upstairs flat at the northeast corner of Seventh and Chestnut streets, but this flat is now without a tenant. It has not been occupied for two months. The last occupants were a family named Ward, who at the time indicated moved to San Jose. It is known that that family rented a front room to a man and that man it is believed, was Collins, although he was known to other tenants in the house as Murry.

ROBBERS ARE CONFIRMED CRIMINALS.

Collins has been a prison bird. In 1886 he was sent to Folsom for assault upon a woman. His term was fixed at twenty-five years. After serving four years, however, he was paroled and, two years later, he was discharged.

Zimmerman served six months in the county jail of San Francisco for petty larceny, having been sentenced in March, 1897. On August 26, 1898, he was sent to Folsom for burglary. He was discharged in March, 1902, and in July of the following year he was sent to the San Francisco county jail for six months.

INJURED IN TRAIN WRECKS WOMEN JUMP FROM THE CAR THREE CARS FALL INTO WINDOWS

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., March 28.—A Michigan Central and Pere Marquette train together in a head-on collision on the American end of the Can-tiever bridge today. Three cars were derailed and pitched over into the stream below, a distance of thirty feet, carrying with them a switchman's shanty, in which was seated Patrick Whalen, a switch tender, who was severely injured.

George Kehmie of Niagara Falls, the conductor of the Pere Marquette train, was also badly hurt.

KENT, O., March 28.—The west-bound Pacific Express on the Erie road jumped the track here today at a point where the road winds around a high bluff. Five coaches left the track and stopped within a few inches of the edge of the embankment wall. Two Italian laborers were struck and thrown over the embankment. They are probably fatally injured. The train was crowded with passengers, several of whom became panic stricken and jumped through car windows.

Two Men Commit Suicide in Same Hotel, But in Different Rooms, at Same Time, Each Using a Revolver

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 28.—Henry L. Woodward, said to be a well-known attorney of New York, and a brother of Judge Woodward, of the Circuit Court, was found dead in a room at the Hollenden Hotel today, with a self-inflicted bullet wound through his head.

CLEVELAND, March 28.—Thirty minutes after the body of Woodward had been found the hotel employes discovered that another guest T. A. Brouse, a salesman for the National Supply Company of Toledo, had also committed suicide by shooting himself through the temple in his room.

It is believed that Woodward and Brouse agreed to end their lives at the same time.

MINISTERS MAY ACCEPT ROCKEFELLERS $100,000

BOSTON, March 28.—The question of accepting or rejecting John D. Rockefeller's gift of $100,000 to the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions was the principal business scheduled to come before the meeting of the prudential committee today.

The widespread discussion which followed the action taken by congregational clergymen in various parts of New England last week in protesting against the acceptance of the gift because of objections to the alleged business methods of the Standard Oil Company created great interest in today's meeting.

Dr. James L. Barton, foreign secretary of the American board, said to-day that already $41,500 of the gift was in the treasury, and the question to be decided at today's meeting was, therefore, whether this amount should be returned or whether it should be retained and the balance accepted.

Before the meeting of the committee the opinion was expressed at Congregational headquarters that the gift would be accepted. It was stated that the amount already drawn from Mr. Rockefeller had been apportioned by the American Board for Colleges in Japan, India and Turkey.

The Missionary Herald, the organ of the American board, issued today, contains an acknowledgment of the $41,500 as a part of Mr. Rockefeller's gift, and indicates its apportionment.

ARGUMENTS FOR LONG SENTENCE AWAITS WOMAN HIS LIFE KICKER

NAPA, March 28.—The trial of Attendant Shanahan and Retzman, of the Napa State Hospital, on the charge of killing Patient Joseph Louis at the institution on December 28 last, was resumed in the Superior Court this morning with a crowded courtroom. Attendants Edwards, Fitzgerald and McCarthy were called by District Attorney Benjamin as witnesses in rebuttal. They stated that Dr. Stone did not advise that when he pressed the attendant should pull the legs of a patient out from under him, as Retzman did in the struggle with Louis. District Attorney Benjamin then made an extended argument to the jury. He stated that he intended to do his duty in every case where a crime appeared. That Superintendent Stone of the State Hospital had taken action against the two defendants because he was bound to do so and care for the sixteen hundred insane people under his charge. He claimed that Louis did not cut his restraint strap, but that the attendant unlocked the buckle of the strap and inflicted blows on Louis' body. Attorneys L. E. Johnston and F. E. Johnston then made arguments for the defense. They claimed that Shanahan and Retzman were protecting their lives from a violent maniac and that they did what any man would have done.

The court then adjourned.

WANT TO BE THE SECRETARY OF WORKS BOARD

Among the politicians there is much interest manifested in the fight being made by Attorney George E. Jackson, Glen Davis and Walter Fawcett for the position of secretary of the Board of Works under the new administration. Fawcett is the incumbent, but strong pressure is being brought to bear to make the members of the board see the claims of the respective candidates in a favorable light.

Both Davis and Jackson are formidable candidates and have powerful friends who will back them.

City Attorney McElroy and City Engineer Turner are said to be favorable to Fawcett, while Mayor-elect Mott has not yet expressed a decided preference.

WRECKED CREW IS RESCUED

HONOLULU, March 28.—The United States gunboat Petrel, returning today from Midway Island, brought the crew of the schooner C. Kennedy which left here on February 9 with supplies for the Cable Station on Midway, but was wrecked on the Island of Laysan. The crew and some of the cargo of the Kennedy were saved, but the vessel is a total loss.

3 WOMEN HELD UP. MEMORY

Armed and Masked Robber Secures Nearly $100 From Them.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Armed with a revolver and wearing a black mask, a footpad held up three women on Stockton street between Filbert and Greenwich streets early this morning. The victims were Mrs. J. Navarro, secretary of Messina Circle of Foresters; Mrs. L. Zazzia, and Mrs. Josephine Kerr, both of whom are members of the organization of which Mrs. Navarro is secretary.

The robber seemed to know that Mrs. Navarro had the funds of the lodge, for it was she upon whom he leveled his revolver and it was from her he wrenched a purse containing nearly $100 in gold and silver and some valuable papers.

He then made his escape.

The mask the robber wore and the empty satchel have been found, but there is no clue to his identity.

BRUTAL MURDER

Unknown Man's Skull Fractured With a Club.

BAKERSFIELD, March 28.—One of the most brutal and cold blooded murders that has been committed in this city came to light at 6 o'clock this morning when a man who has not yet been identified, was found by a street car conductor, lying face down on the sidewalk on Nineteenth street. His skull was fractured with a club, which was found lying a short distance from the scene of the murder.

The pockets of the overalls which the dead man wore were turned inside out, and his shoes had been taken from his feet.

While several persons have stated that they have seen him about the city for two weeks, no one appears to know his name. The police have as yet obtained no clew to the identity of the murderer or murderers.

The greatest indignation has been aroused in the city.

DEVLIN TAKES OATH

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Robert T. Devlin, recently appointed United States District Attorney, took his oath of office this morning in open court before Circuit Judge W. W. Morrow.

After the customary proceedings Devlin spent his time receiving the congratulations of his many friends and learning the details of several complicated affairs connected with his new position. He succeeds Marshall B. Woodworth.

When interviewed this morning the new District Attorney expressed himself as unable to determine at present the changes that would take place in the office under his administration, but stated that he believed they would be very few.

As to his attitude toward his future work he said:

"I consider the United States as my client, and in any cases that come up I will give my best work to the United States, as I would to a client."

'PHONE CO'S SUIT IS POSTPONED

The trial of the suit of Johanna and Charles Horton against the Sunset Telephone Company for $3,000 damages for the death of Horace Horton, husband and father of the two plaintiffs, which was to have been begun yesterday before Judge Ellsworth was continued until tomorrow owing to the fact that the judge is engaged in the hearing of another trial.

Horace Horton lost his life through placing his hand on a telephone wire connecting with the telephone in his house in the presence of his wife and two children. He was electrocuted. He was a steam pipe fitter and earned from $5 to $8 a day at his trade and the $30,000 asked for it is believed that what he would have earned had he finished out his natural length of life as reckoned by insurance companies.

The case is claimed to be an unusually aggravated one. Mrs. Horton had been complaining of the ringing of her telephone bell and was fearful that something was not right with it and was afraid to go near it as though she had a permanent fear of what might follow if she attempted to see what was the matter there. One evening her husband happened to be there when the bell began ringing and she called him so that he might see that her complaint was not without cause and he stepped up to the phone and after trying it took hold of the wires to assure her no harm could come of it. She saw a peculiar change come over his face and she realized that he was smiling at her for her fears and then it changed and she realized her husband was being killed before her eyes, and before she could give him any succor he was dead.

The widow and orphaned son's attorneys are A. A. Moore and Stanley Moore and I. L. Langan & Langan, while the attorneys for the Telephone Company are E. S. Pillsbury of San Francisco, H. C. Chapman and George de Galle. It is expected that a battle royal will ensue when the trial of the case is fairly on.

WILL ARREST ALLEGED BOODLER

LINCOLN, Neb., March 28.—A committee of the Senate which is investigating the charge made by an Omaha newspaper that a $5,000 boodle fund had been raised by county officers in the State to help insure the passage by the Legislature of a bill which would enable the present county officers to hold their places two years longer, has asked for power to make arrests. This means, it is said, that an official of Omaha is to be arrested.

SHOOTS AT PRIEST

Mysterious Attempt is Made to Murder Him.

WINNIPEG, Man., Mar. 28.—Mystery surrounds a sensational attempt to murder Rev. W. Blazowski, priest of an independent Polish church. As the priest sat at a table today in a lower room of his residence, two shots were fired from the street, crashing through the window, within a few inches of his head. One of the bullets struck an oil lamp, which exploded and set fire to the room, the contents of which, including several valuable oil paintings were destroyed.

Since coming to Winnipeg Blazowski has been active in religious controversies among the Poles, with the result that he has incurred the enmity of some factions.

3 BOYS STABBED

STOCKTON, March 28.—Roy Davis, a youthful printing office employee, is under arrest for stabbing three youths of about his own age.

The quartet had an argument last night regarding the relative merits of schools, Davis claiming that he could learn more in a printing office than the others could in school.

A fight followed, Davis being worsted. He went home, armed himself with a knife and returned. Another fight ensued, during which Davis cut each of the others.

Clarence Edwards was cut in the back and his lungs narrowly missed; George Kenyon was cut over the heart, but not dangerously, and Harry Harkins received only a slight wound. None of the wounds are regarded as very dangerous.

HAS PRIVILEGE AT FORTY YEARS.

On your fortieth birthday it will be all right to take a glass too much. This was the decision of Police Judge Smith in the case of Oscar A. Daly, who was charged with having consulted the flowing bowl early and late yesterday. "Your honor," said Mr. Daly, "rubbing his head, in an apparent effort to see if it was his own. 'It was my birthday. I took a wee bit too much and will have to plead guilty. If you can see your way clear to let me go I will promise you not to come back again. I am forty years old.'"

"You can go," said the Court. Six others also pleaded that it their first offense and were allowed to go.

DESCRIBES DEAD BODY

Witness Tells of Wounds on Insane Asylum Patient.

NAPA, Cal., March 28.—The trial of attendants T. D. Shanahan and Oscar Retzman of the Napa State Hospital, charged with killing patient Louis at that institution, was resumed this morning before Judge Gesford with a crowded court room. Dr. L. Cohn, third assistant physician of the asylum, was called to the stand for the defense. He stated that on the evening of December 25, 1904, he made two visits to room 4 and saw the dead body of Louis on the floor. He noticed a puncture wound on Louis' abdomen about the size of a dime and two E shaped bruises, evidently made by a brass buckle at the end of a restraining strap. Retzman told at the meeting of doctors and supervisors of the asylum that night that he took Louis out of a lock chair and that he did not notice Louis had broken his restraint strap till after he was out of the chair.

Dr. Cohn was present when Dr. L. A. Frary of Napa made an autopsy on the body at the asylum morgue, and took notes on the findings. He testified that two E shaped marks were cut through the outerskin and were evenly made, that there was serum exuding from parts of the bruises, that they were yellow in color and made some time previous to the death of Louis—24 hours or more.

They were made by strong pressure against the body of the patient possibly while he was in the chair, but could not have been made by blows being struck on the body. Louis died of cardiac epilepsy, complicated with injuries from the fall onto the floor. The court then adjourned until 1:30 p. m.

CONTEST IS OFF

Settlement in Estate of Late Lady Yarde-Buller.

A compromise has been reached between the husband and son of the late Lady Kirkham Blair Yarde-Buller, and the contest over the estate of the deceased is off, and Yesterday Vincent Neale, of San Rafael, as a representative of Walter Yarde-Buller, of South Africa, and George T. Wright, representing Ralph K. Blair, the son of the deceased, were appointed joint administrators of the estate. Just what agreement has been arrived at between Yarde-Buller and his stepson is not to be divulged. If the estate is divided according to California law, the husband would get one-half and the son one-half.

The wish of the deceased woman was that her fortune should go to her two sons, one of whom died recently, leaving a widow, who will come in for his share. She told George T. Wright, who was her guardian, that she had left a will in London, England, but after much search a paper was found which Wright stated today, "was within a 1,000 miles of being a will," and after much delay the probate of the estate will now go forward.

Mrs. Yarde-Buller got the large part of her money from her father, the late General Kirkham, which lasted her through her marital experiences until she and Yarde-Buller separated in England. He was spending her money in such a fashion that she stated in court shortly before her death that she would have been penniless had she let him have any more. She then came to America and he went to South Africa, where he is now a major in the South African Police. After she got here her fortune had to be protected against herself, and Wright was appointed her guardian. The remnant of her once ample fortune now consists of a building at Pine and Battery streets in San Francisco, which is thought to be worth about $120,000. Without a will specifying to the contrary, Yarde-Buller will get his half of the estate. She claimed the title of Lady by reason of the fact that Yarde-Buller may inherit the title of his elder brother, Lord Chaurston.

CALL IT CASE OF SUICIDE.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Detectives detailed to assist Sheriff Brown of Humboldt county in searching for a Pierpont Morgan, an escaped convict, who disappeared from the steamer Corona while the vessel was rounding Point Reyes on her way to this city on Saturday, have reported to their superior officer that, in their opinion, the prisoner committed suicide by leaping into the ocean.

ACTRESS WINS OUT

Gets First Favorable Decision in Duns-muir Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—The Superior Court has handed down a decision in which it is held that the probating in British Columbia of the will of Alexander Duns-muir is illegal on the ground that Duns-muir is a resident of California.

The proceedings in British Columbia are declared void, and the will must be administered here.

Under the will James Duns-muir was executor and sole legatee, depriving Mrs. Alex Duns-muir, now dead and her daughter, Edna, a late actress, of her share in the estate.

Mrs. Hopper instituted proceedings and today won the first round.

Now that original will must be brought and filed in San Francisco county, and its filing will mean a contest, for Mrs. Hopper and the decedent's mother, Mrs. Van Oure Duns-muir, desire to share in the estate of more than $7,000,000.

Judge Coffey rendered a lengthy opinion, dwelling particularly on the lack of precedence. He said that the ruling would doubtless make it possible for other estates involving millions of dollars' worth of property to be brought into litigation on the same grounds.

FLINT IS IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 28.—Senator Frank P. Flint has returned from Washington and is staying at the Palace Hotel. His stay will be somewhat short on account of a reception, which will be tendered him by admiring friends in Los Angeles.

Appropos of a tour scheduled for the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors, Senator Flint had some interesting things to say. The committee is going first to Porto Rico, after which it will make a somewhat extended tour, which will take in San Francisco and the Pacific Coast.

Congressman Burton of Ohio is chairman of the committee, and, according to Senator Flint, he is a veritable encyclopedia on all matters connected with river and harbor improvement.

The Senator was talking to Burton about San Francisco and was surprised to find what a detailed knowledge he had of San Francisco bay and its needs. Senator Flint expects to be assigned to the Committee on Irrigation and Public Lands. As to his other committees he is still somewhat uncertain.

Dr. Larkey is attending Mr. Requa at the family residence at Highland Park, Bonne avenues, Piedmont.

SOLVE MYSTERY OF A COIN SACK

BERKLEY, March 28.—The mystery surrounding the finding of a grip containing a bank coin sack, which was supposed to have had some connection with the recent robbery of $10,000 from the Central Bank messengers has been solved. Macey let the grip under the building in which he was employed and explains that he secured the coin sack, which is marked "Bank of Butte county," while he was employed in Chico.

The boy is said by his father, James C. Rogers, to have denied being with Miss Ely, and to have denied seeing her since leaving home.

"I have learned nothing more from Frank," said Mr. Rogers today. "He has been in Pittsburg, and I think in other Eastern cities. I am not going to bother him with questions, and when he gets ready to tell me all he wants to say, I will listen."

Wife Pays Back $8,000 Stolen By Her Husband From the Government.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—When George E. Morse died November 8 last, he was $8,000 short in his accounts. Morse was a clerk in the United States District Court of Judge J. J. De Haven, and he had taken from the fees of bankruptcy cases in his court the sum above mentioned.

George E. Morse was the husband of the favorite niece of the late President McKinley. After his death she sold her furniture, her jewelry, gave up his life insurance—all she had in this world—to pay his debts, so Dame Rumor said.

People wondered how it happened that Morse died so poor that his widow was obliged to give up all and everything.

The mystery was so great that the gossip took it up. There were whispers of French dinners; of wine and women; of jewels and other handsome presents. Not quite all of these things were as proper as they might be.

Morse had violated that extra commandment—he had been "found out." He had been considered a model to all young men.

After his death the whisperers told that he was far from the saint he would like to have posed as being.

The tales gained form and substance. Morse had lived beyond his income. The suppers and presents made to his various innumerate had been far and away too much for his purse.

His death disclosed the shortage, and to protect his name his widow surrendered all she possessed of value. The Government has not lost a cent.

Mrs. Morse surprised and scandalized society by marrying but two months after her husband's death, her second husband being Harry Cooper, the stationer. People thought it singular that after her devotion to Morse she should reward in so short a time.

But now comes the explanation, and San Francisco has another seven days' wonder to keep them in the coming.

Marshall B. Woodworth, whose term as United States Attorney expired yesterday, had written about the matter, saying that Robert T. Devlin, who is to succeed him, had all the facts and figures, and that whatever else is yet to be done will be done by Mr. Devlin.

BOLD SCHEME IS UNEARTHED

DENVER, March 28.—The News today says: A counterfeiting scheme, gigantic in its proportions and rich in results, which has as its field the whole of the United States, has just been unearthed by the Federal authorities. A number of Government secret service agents are now in Denver following clues which are said to have led them to believe that the headquarters of the gang are located in this city.

The operations of the counterfeiters are said to extend all the way from New York to San Francisco and so far it is believed that something like $50,000 has been secured in the larger cities of the country.

The counterfeiters are one of the best duplicates of the Buffalo Series of $10 and $20 bills which has ever come to the attention of the Federal authorities. A description of the counterfeit bills as furnished by the United States Secret Service Department follows:

Series 1901, No. 29513972; face plate 195; back plate 87; check letter D; signed Lyons, register; Roberts, treasurer; portraits of Lewis and Clark.

The counterfeiters are a shade darker than the genuine. Secret Service Agent E. H. Wilson is here working on the case. Speaking of the counterfeiters' method of operation he said:

"Their work is so smooth that it is almost impossible to detect them at all. Several agents are sent out and purchases for small amounts are made in the stores of the town they are in. A $10 or $20 bill is presented in payment and they receive their cash in change. The counterfeit is not discovered until it goes to the bank and even then in a great many cases it has been allowed to go through, so perfect is the imitation.

"There is not only one gang, but several of them scattered around over the country. How many there are in on the deal we cannot tell yet."

EXPOSURE KILLS

TWO OF CREW

TOKIO, March 28.—Two of the crew of the British steamer Mars have died of exposure. The rest of the men rescued have arrived at Hakodate.

The Mars, a steamer of 2,497 tons register, commanded by Captain Ruffell, sailed from Barry, Wales, on November 26 last, bound for Vladivostok. On March 17, while attempting the passage of Soya Strait, she was caught in the ice and finally she stranded off Rurik Point. A part of the crew effected a landing on the island of Hokkaido, but the others were missing, including eight of the officers, who were last reported in a lifeboat being carried seaward by the ice. The survivors were very likely refers to the missing portion of the crew, picked up by the Japanese, who have kept up a continuous search for them.

American Rule in the Philippines

American rule in the Philippines has received a warm commendation from an authoritative and unbiased source. It is from M. la Mothe, Governor-General of Cochín China, who was delegated by the French Government to thoroughly investigate the economic and political conditions in the Philippines and Java. M. la Mothe's report is highly commendatory of American methods and policy. It has not yet been made public, but in an interview he expressed himself as follows:

"I spent four months in the Philippines studying the result of American control. I was struck by the enormous prestige made in such a comparatively brief period. This has been greater during the last four years than during the 350 years preceding the American occupation. The natives are being educated, are receiving the benefits of municipal and provincial liberty, and are rapidly acquiring the spirit of republican institutions."

This is not the phrase of mere compliment. The Governor-General of Cochín China is an acknowledged authority on Colonial administration, and his investigation was made for the information and guidance of the French Government, which has many problems to solve in dealing with France's East Indian dependencies. What he says is respectfully referred to the Boston Anti-Imperialist League.

Delaware's Fight Against Addicks

The Legislature of Delaware has adjourned without electing a Senator, hence the State will be without representation in the Senate till the Legislature meets again. For the second time in fourteen years Gas Addicks has, by his determination to get himself elected, caused Delaware to be left without a Senator.

This prolonged struggle of the decent elements of the State to repel the attempt of an interloping, office-seeking, ballot-corrupting millionaire to impose his dictatorship on a commonwealth of the Union is a convincing argument in favor of electing Senators by popular vote. Addicks could not be elected by popular vote nor could he prevent the election of some other candidate at the polls, but he can always get enough members of the Legislature to prevent the election of any other Republican, although the Republicans have a good working majority. During the session just ended a number of independent Republicans held out against him, but they would not assist in electing a Democrat.

The spectacle in Delaware is an extraordinary one. It is produced by the ambition of a shameless millionaire and the presence of a large purchasable vote—larger in proportion to the total population perhaps than can be found in any other State. The remedy for such a condition seems to be placing the power to elect Senators directly in the hands of the people.

Governor Johnson of Minnesota proposes to give the champagne dealers the ha-ha in christening the battleship "Minnesota." The christening will be done with water from the falls of Minnehaha, which will be properly charged to make it real laughing water.

The suggestion that Luther Burbank endeavor to propagate a variety of office holders that will protest against an increase of salary is out of order. The office holder is a bird, not a vegetable.

"All gambling is vulgar," writes Henry Watterson after a visit to Monte Carlo. As the Kentucky editor has tried all kinds in his day he is qualified to speak with the voice of authority. But what happened at Monte Carlo to bring home to him the conviction that all gambling is vulgar?

Now that Mrs. Stanford has been laid in the tomb, let the ridiculous poison fake be interred in the grave with her remains. The morbid sensation has been about worked out, and it is time to drop it.

The Earl of Roslyn will probably be more successful in breaking his American wife than he was in his attempt to break the bank at Monte Carlo.

Despotism in Russia continues to be tempered by assassination. The latest to receive a protest by bomb is the Chief of Police of Warsaw. Anarchy and murder are the natural products of oppression and criminal misgovernment, and it is useless to rail at the symptoms so long as no effort is made to eradicate the disease.

Expenditures and Other Things.

Congressman Livingston of Georgia, ranking Democratic member of the General Appropriations Committee of the House, has issued a statement regarding the appropriations made by the last Congress. It is for political effect, of course, and must be regarded as partisan campaign material. The statement in question takes the form of a comparison of the expenditures on military account during President Cleveland's last term. If one looked no further than the grand totals, the showing would be bad for the Republicans and good for the Democrats. Here they are:

Under Mr. Roosevelt for the four years (1903-1906) the people have had of their substance appropriated for the army $315,791,961; for the navy, $358,574,975; and for fortifications, $28,753,456; or a grand total of $703,120,393.

Under Mr. Cleveland we were called upon for, and appropriated during his four years (1893-1896)—for the army, $95,379,632; for the navy, $100,390,818; and for fortifications, $9,275,892; or a total of $205,046,343.

A wise man will always look beyond an ex parte statement capacious in spirit and hostile in purpose to ascertain whether it truly represents comparative conditions. The question is not the difference between the amounts spent for particular objects during Republican and Democratic administrations, but the general conditions which prevailed during those periods.

When Mr. Cleveland was President there was a deficit in the Treasury and the Government had to repeatedly borrow money on bonds to pay its running expenses. Wages, farm products and manufactured goods were abnormally low, and there was universal stagnation and destitution in the land. Great armies of idle workmen tramped the country in search of employment; factories and mills lay idle, bankruptcies were numerous, railroads were in the hands of receivers, and bank failures were frequent. Our foreign commerce dwindled and our domestic trade and industries were paralyzed. Our vast extent of sea coast was wholly unprotected by fortifications.

Now for the other side. During Mr. Roosevelt's term the country has been prosperous to an unexampled degree. There is a large surplus in the Treasury; the Nation's credit is higher than the credit of any other nation on the globe, wages are on a higher level than ever before, our manufacturing industry is more extensive and more prosperous than at any time in our history, our foreign commerce is now second only to that of Great Britain, there are no armies of idle men seeking employment, few bank failures, no large railroad systems in the hands of receivers; but the whole land teems with a busy prosperity, of which the agricultural industry enjoys a full share. Our sea coasts are fortified and garrisoned, our navy has been made great and powerful, and the Nation is respected in the uttermost parts of the earth.

Do the people desire to return to the lean years and small expenditures of Cleveland's day or continue the season of fatness, plenty and liberal expenditures which came with Republican rule? The American people can much better afford the Government expenditures of today than they could afford the expenditures of Cleveland's time. The territories and population of the Republic have enormously increased since then; it has grown into wealth with staggering rapidity. The Nation's feet have been set across the sea in the Orient and in the islands of the Caribbean sea, and its army and navy equipment have been put on a footing befitting a mighty nation having world-wide interest. Mr. Livingston of Georgia apparently thinks this country has made a mistake in becoming rich, prosperous and powerful.

SOUND CRACKER-BOX PHILOSOPHY.

It will be very readily seen that when a municipality exempts a manufacturing establishment from taxation for the purpose of inducing it to establish itself within its borders, it is not giving away anything it already has. At least each individual man, in case of local subsidy has the very thing on which the subsidy is asked before him, and it becomes a mere question of dollars and cents to HIM. On the other hand the subsidy given to such billionaire corporations as the Steel Trust is given without any voter in the land knowing just how he stands in the deal. There is no man in the land except the stockholders in the concern who can figure out any benefit whatever from the subsidy. There may be a fine-spun theory about some great general benefit from making billionaires, who, because of being billionaires, can pay a higher wage to working men, but none of these even can make any possible figure as to what the increase of his wages can possibly be from such subsidy.—Colusa Sun.

PRISON IMPROVEMENTS

Work Likely to Begin at Both Prisons Before July 1.

The late Legislature appropriated by Senate Bills 725 and 717, money for betterment of the two State Prisons. For the prison at San Quentin the sum of $310,000 is provided for new cells, excavations, erection of a machine house, for a pipe line and for extension of the wall system.

The money is available as follows: July 1, 1905, $30,000; January 1, 1906, $30,000; July 1, 1906, $35,000; January 1, 1907, $20,000; July 1, 1907, $40,000; January 1, 1908, $35,000; July 1, 1908, $40,000; January 1, 1909, $30,000; July 1, 1909, $40,000.

For the Folsom Prison the sum of $163,000 was appropriated for construction of additional cells, for tools to open quarries and to place a wall around the prison. It is available as follows:

July 1, 1905, $30,000; January 1, 1906, $20,000; July 1, 1906, $25,000; January 1, 1907, $20,000; July 1, 1907, $20,000; January 1, 1908, $20,000; July 1, 1908, $20,000; January 1, 1909, $13,000.

In each case all work has to be advertised for and all supplies to be used also; and no bills can be paid until they have been audited by the State Board of Examiners.

While nothing authoritative concerning the work is obtainable at the Capitol, it is understood that the prison directors are solicitous to begin work at the earliest moment, and that they may utilize the time prior to the first installments becoming available in maturing plans and getting everything into readiness for procedure on the first day of July next.

As the Act went into effect on its approval there is nothing to prevent the prison authorities proceeding to plan for the improvements at once and have all preparatory steps taken.—Sacramento Union.

OAKLAND SOCIETY WOMEN DIVIDED ON QUESTION OF PLAYING CARDS FOR MONEY OR PRIZES.

A professor of ethics in Columbia University the other day announced that there was no moral wrong in gambling. The Rev. Frederick Clappett of Trinity Episcopal Church, San Francisco, declares that the fashionable diversion of bridge whist as played by society here on the verge of the Western world, the ultimate of civilization, is wicked. Now it seems that the ladies—God bless them—have resolved among themselves or had resolved that bridge whist was an amusement peculiarly appropriate to the Lenten season, a sort of subdued and semi-penitential diversion that almost rises to the dignity of self-denial when compared with dancing and other frivolities that make up the laborious activities of a fashionable woman.

The gravamen of Dr. Clappett's warning appears to be in the fact that the ladies do not play for love or to improve their minds by the intellectual success of a scientific game, but that they contend for valuable prizes, some of them worth as much as $75. It is certain that no love is lost over these games.

GAMBLING? OH! DEAR, NO!
This is gambling, says Dr. Clappett. It is not, he says, the way of salvation, as some women have announced, or a fit observance of the current penitential season. In Oakland the other day a man brought suit for divorce, alleging as ground that he found himself constantly obliged to sign checks for the price of articles of what Mrs. Malaprop called "bigotry and virtue," to be used as prizes in bridge whist; so that in addition to its other sins this wicked but fashionable game must have been part of the burden of responsibility for the prevalence of divorce. That is what comes of giving a game a bad name.

Nevertheless, a prime rule of bridge whist is, "Don't finesse against your partner," and it might be pleaded that this is equally good conjugal wisdom. The way of salvation is very perplexing. But "gambling"—bah! what a rude word! A hot and rebellious pastime, quothe, and in Lent, too.

It was Talleyrand, perhaps, who said that not to know whist was to prepare a miserable old age for yourself, but then the ladies—again, God bless them—never grow old.

Some of these opinions on the music, or, at least, the consecrated noises, of Dr. Clappett's drum ecclesiastic, will be found to be interesting.

Women of the exclusive society set of Oakland have not hesitated to take sides for and against Dr. Clappett. Following are the opinions of several prominent leaders:

Mrs. A. A. Goodfellow—I am decidedly against playing cards for money and am on the same side with the Rev. Dr. Clappett. I agree with him. He is quite right when he says that it is just like gambling, and I do not like the idea of playing for prizes; it should be a social game, that's all.

Mrs. W. W. Standford—Prizes are what we play for, not money. I suppose it all comes to the same thing, but if Dr. Clappett thinks that fortunes are put into prizes for card parties here in Oakland he is very much mistaken.

Mrs. E. B. Stone—It is my opinion that every one is privileged to please himself. I should not play for gain myself, but I have nothing to say against one who would.

Mrs. E. M. Walsh—Prizes are well enough, but I do not approve of playing for money. It would disgust any well-bred woman, I fancy.

Mrs. J. R. Burnham—Why, I never heard of such a thing as playing for money, and I attend many card parties and belong to several clubs. I am certain that Oakland ladies do not play for money and I do not believe that those of San Francisco do. It's a great mistake, I feel sure.

WOMAN PLEADS FOR WOMEN IN MINISTRY

Dr. Katharine Bushnell entered a plea yesterday morning before the Presbyterian Ministers' Union, San Francisco, for women in the ministry. In urging her cause she became an apologist of the attitude of St. Paul regarding the silence of women in the church, saying that in the time of the apostle Christians were living under the cover of Judaism, and, consequently, St. Paul must have modified what he would have women do in order to bring them under the conditions acceptable to the Jews.

Briefly she referred to the position of woman under the old law, when many raked with the prophets, and the emphasizing of her subjection to meet later requirements, she added that in these modern days women are not expected to keep silent, and she contended there should be either a standing to the literal words of Scripture or a seeking to properly understand them.

To plainly bring forward her meaning she went thoroughly into an analysis of Greek roots and the numerous classic translations, illustrating the readiness with which incorrect interpretations are made.

YOUNG MAN PROPOSES OF TODAY

Counterfeiting Scheme Covers United States.

The young man of today is becoming such a slave to slang that he cannot forget it even when he proposes to the maid of his choice. In South Brooklyn, a handsome girl of nineteen years was walking down the street recently with a wealthy young man who had been her devoted admirer for six months. She bowed to a young man she knew.

"Awfully nice looking, isn't he?" she asked her companion, who surlily replied:

"Fair-looking duck, but who is I double-tee—'T' now? Don't I cut in at all?"

"What do you mean," interrogated the girl, blankly.

"Well," went on the slangy youngster, "you are always telling me what a good looking that geezer is. Now, is he the whole thing and I an 'also ran,' or do I win? I just pass it up to you, you know."

The girl must have been stupid, for she still failed to understand him.

"You're side-stepping and don't want to understand," went on her escort, pitilessly. "All right! Can you fix it up for say, three months from date? That is plain, isn't it?"

"Fix what up?" she asked him.

"Why, the day and hour to get doubled up, you know."

Imagine a refined young lady being proposed to in that barbarous and slangy style. Just think of calling marriage being "doubled up."

It is recorded that Charles Wadsworth of Philadelphia took the girl he wanted to a vaudeville theater on her eighteenth birthday, and when a player sang "I'll Leave My Happy Home for You," Charlie leaned over and whispered, "That's what I'd like to have you do for me."

Did she do it? Why, yes—and never regretted her choice.

Another young man in Washington, D. C., showed his amazing impudence by the method in which he popped the all important question. It was in the spring and the sweethearts were walking along Lafayette Square.

"Trees and flowers look nice, don't they?" he said to her in an off-hand sort of way. "Sweet season in Washington, spring, isn't it? We won't be a thing but married when the lilacs show up next spring, will we?"

She accepted him and he made a good husband.

school she got the bicycle fever and was wild to learn to ride the wheel.

"Well," said the young man, "I'll teach ye if ye'll treat me good."

She promised. Next day he came around with a "bicycle built for two."

The girl was delighted.

"I'll give you this machine if you will promise me one thing," he said.

"And what is that?"

"To go tandem thru life with me."

This story is told of an actor now doing "heretic" work in the blood-and-thunder drama: As a youth he had a sweetheart in a small New Hampshire town. He was light and volatile and wanted to be an actor. She was an earnest little girl and just doted on

The usual society woman is altogether too busy with a round of dinners, balls and teas to give much time to the cultivation of her mind.

A clever college woman, past the first flush of youth, has found this fact full of importance to her. She is a well-read, much-traveled woman who has kept abreast with the times in the arts, sciences and business because these things interested her.

The ladies of teas and dances held a meeting early in the season and decided that something must be done. The woman who knows what the world is doing was the object of discussion. They knew she was easily the most entertaining member of their set and how she managed to be so, also that they would have to do something to keep up with her.

Not one of the round of functions could be neglected for the intellectual task, and with the most careful planning not more than two or four hours each week could be devoted to it. They concluded that the college woman, being their worst enemy, should help them out. She was unmarried, hence had fewer social obligations, and some one brilliantly discovered that her income had proved disappointing. They went to her as a committee to see if she would, for a monetary consideration, dole out to them some of her stored-up knowledge. The result was that she stayed in town for the opera season, and the men are all wondering over the added intelligence of their feminine relatives.

Emerson, giving to her, boy friend some of Emerson's books when he went to the great metropolitan center.

"I don't care much for actors as a rule," she had said, in bidding him good-bye, "but if you have anything serious in you, you may sometime have a part that is worthy talking about."

These words stuck in his memory, and he corresponded regularly with his little New Hampshire girl, who encouraged him to work for artistic success in the best way that was in him. At last, after six years' work, he managed to get the leading role in a play put on by a prominent stock company. Unable to stand being away from her longer, he wrote her the following unique proposal:

"You believe in Emerson. Then hitch you wagon to a star and become a star actor's wife. I am now the star actor in the 'company,' and I need you in my business."

The sash is to be an important feature of diaphanous summer frocks. Already dainty lace gowns are seen with the sash ribbon not only serving its usual purpose, but also in shoulder straps or as an edging to a surplice front.

Conversation Club Suggested For Women.

The process is simply enough. Twice a week, on Tuesdays and Fridays, from 10 to 12, she meets them at one of their homes and talks.

The subject is any one of a number of varied topics suggested by the women themselves, and questions are asked and answered freely. The clever woman during the week reads up on any topic they may want to discuss, gets it in mind in the briefest, most concise way, and wastes no time with unessentials when talking.

She picks up from artists, musicians and travelers to out-of-the-way places the most interesting bits of information and utilizes all for transmission to her social friends.

It is amazing the vast amount of intellectual food she can impart to them in four hours a week.

Twenty-five dollars a month is paid her for her services, which, after all, are one of her chiefest pleasures.

Reading to invalids is a lucrative and pleasant occupation which some women are taking up aside from their duties to their household.

It requires but little time, perhaps an hour or more a day, according to the time which can be spared from home, and no preparation. A pleasant reading voice, a clear enunciation and appreciation of the value of words and sentences are all that is required.

Nearly every one in her own circle of acquaintances can find an invalid, an elderly person or a convalescent who will gladly pay 50 cents an hour for relief from ennui.

ALAMEDA MINISTER SAYS NO HYMN SHOULD GIVE PLACE TO ANTHEM OR SOLO

Dr. A. T. Needham of Alameda is of the opinion that no hymn should give place to anthem or solo or "sky-scraping soprano effort or deep-sea plunge of bass." The doctor expressed his views yesterday when addressing the Methodist preachers' meeting at the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, San Francisco, on "Hymnology."

He conceded that musical declamation was not to be despised, but when it arrogated to itself the place rightfully belonging to the congregation then he rebuked and repelled its intrusion. Better faulty congregational singing, he declared, than perfect art by a cultivated choir. He had known choirs to insist on fewer hymns so as to have more time for their artistic work.

If either should give place to the other he held that it was not the hymn that should give precedence to the anthem or the solo or to "any other sky-scraping soprano effort or deep-sea plunge of bass."

Dr. Needham said that they were "not yet prepared for airships that fly with gas but cannot carry, nor for submarine navigation that fails for want of oxygen."

CLOTHING HINTS FOR SPRING

No use trying to worry along without a short white jacket for summer, and let it be as much done up with holes and 'broderies' as possible.

The popular waistcoat is reluctant to go, and lingers in persuasive little effects that furnish new costumes. In a white linen gown, shown lately, a whimsical waistcoat was made of red velvet.

For the street black kid and patent leather are the best wear. Russet shoes, both low and high, as well as low bronze Oxford, cannot but be popular, since browns and beiges are on the fashionable color list of dress materials.

French millinery emphasizes not only fuschia pinks, but hyacinth blues, lettuce greens and tulip greens, besides old rose, reddish violets and very pale flesh pinks. These, as well as reds, are carried out into three shades, sometimes in four.

There is, as yet, no decrease in the vogue of the ribbon girde, and shirring continues to be liked for those which are to accompany light-colored or white house frocks. It is at the back of the fancy girde that most of the novel fancies are introduced, up-standing points, caught with fancy buttons, drooping loops and ends knotted and bowed, and the like.

Effective are the spring cotton passementeries, and usually combined in two shades of a color or in white and a color. Strawberry pink and white, ochre and white, beige and white, blue and white are all desirable. By selecting a broad and a narrow passementerie, and uniting them into a design, a bodice may be charmingly trimmed.

The short white glove is doomed, if one believes the verdict of Paris. Last season the fashionable New Yorkers began to drop the glove white kid glove and take up suede ones in gray and black. Unless they were a light gown they seemed to prefer soft black gloves, stitched with white, to all-white ones. Now fashionable Europe, led by Paris, has entirely discarded the two-buttoned white kid glove and has gone back to an early love, which is the mousquetaire tan suede stitched in white or black.

FASHION NOTES

Sleeves are charming. Spats match the frock. Bluet is the coming color. Real jewelry is worn in the hats. Gardenias in the corsage are smart. Diamonds and laces are in high favor.

Silk organdies are particularly lovely. The new walking hats are jaunter than ever. Shaded blue camellias are striking novelties.

Cotton voile comes in all the pretty pale colors. Real diamond pins and hatpins are in fashion.

Safe to say that sash ribbons were never lovelier. Hair ribbons seem rather to grow in importance.

A lovely fabric is the new ocean-foam bengaline. Underwear is as nearly all lace as it can be made.

Checked Panama makes some good looking street suits. Yoke emplacements to waists are of every variety of shape.

Betsy Bounce hats of white horsehair are new for children. There are taffetas for little more than half a dollar a yard.

Colored stones are set in gold on a ground of diamond dust. Brussels net with hem of crepe holds first place in mourning veils.

Embroidered valenciennes is among the novelties on the lace counter. A great deal of white is noticeable in the trimming of the spring costumes.

Wealth of color is likely to be the dominating influence of all street dress. Low-necked redingotes merely dip at the front to exploit skirt and waistcoat.

The long evening gloves of pale pink, pale blue and lemon are attractive. A net flouncing piped with pale pink or pale blue is pretty for underskirts.

Gauntlets are wired for the new sleeves, which continue very full on the shoulder.

Decorations of French horn, though pretty, should be avoided on articles intended for hard wear, as they are brittle.

Brocade ribbon is one of the most important trimmings this season and wonderfully brightens up dull material.

NOVELS BY INDIANS.
Of late years the number of writers among the Cherokees has greatly increased. There are historians in the tribe whose works are used as text books in the Indian schools, and who are cited as authorities not to be disputed. There are also Indians who have written codes of law which before being put in permanent form had been handed down from generation to generation. The Indians today obey these laws with a greater reverence than they do the laws of the United States. There are Indian novelists—novelists who devote their time to entertaining the Indian mind with romance with entangled plots and blood-curdling climaxes. These books are popular among the Indians. Edition after edition of some works is published, and they are read by buck and squaw alike.—Chicago Journal.

HOW CANNON COUNTED.
During the last session of Congress Speaker Cannon counted a canon, though it were a matter of gun play. As soon as the absence of a quorum was suggested every musket in his wry frame came into action. He leaned wearily over the desk. His gavel arm, the staff, except the end of the handle, the handle of his parliamentary weapon was aimed on a level with the desks. Then the speaker's eagle eye glanced along the little wooden stick as it pointed straight at a member. He bobbed the stick from man to man. The members sat impassive under a proceeding which was much in appearance as though the speaker were taking a pistol shot at every mother's son of them.

THAT 2,000-YEAR CLOCK.
Richard Strutt, a son of Lord Rayleigh, has invented a clock that will run for 2,000 years. The motive power is a small piece of gold leaf, which is electrified by means of a very small quantity of radium salt. The gold leaf bends away from the metal substance and keeps moving under this influence until it touches the side of the containing vessel. At the moment of contact it loses its electrical charge and then springs back and is again electrified, and the process is repeated. It is thought that a thoroughly reliable clock could be made with the use of radium salt for 11,000 years.

Thinking of the Common Kind.
"Are you the editor?"
"Well, there was a runaway on Main street this morning."

"Cashier or president?"
"Distance oft lends enchantment to a man's view of his wife's mother."

THE MERRY MR. LEISURE.
Mr. Leisure came to town Tuesday as a merry as a lark.

SPORTS ON THE DAY

BERKELEY TEAM AT WORK

Athletes At the University Observe Strict Training Rules.

BERKELEY, March 28.—Although wet weather has delayed training considerably, the track men were out in force with yesterday's sunshine and work is progressing well. Strict training rules commenced yesterday and the men who will compete with the cardinal in this year's meet will devote the time from now till April 15 to the business of getting form.

California and Stanford have exchanged names of men eligible to take place in the field and tennis meets, and the lists have been completely revised and appear in final form.

Ninety-nine men appear on California's eligible list and ninety-seven on Stanford's. The cardinal list of tennis players has twelve names on it, while the California list contains ten names.

ABE ATTELL

CHALLENGES

"CORBETT"

Offers to Fight Him Anywhere -- Billy Can Weigh 150 Pounds if He Likes.

Young Corbett need not go around the country begging for a match under the wing of his new manager, Al Herford. Ate Attell has offered in all sincerity to fight the former featherweight champion at catchweights and make a substantial bet on the side that he wins. The fight can come off at Herford's Eureka Athletic Club in Baltimore or anywhere, and Young Corbett can weigh 150 pounds if he likes, says Attell.

By way of showing that he regards Terry McGovern as a harder proposition than Young Corbett, Attell says he will fight Terry at either 124 or 128 pounds ringside at any time the latter desires. Attell surely has a bona fide claim on the featherweight title, for at 122 pounds ringside, the generally accepted

JOHNSON AND HART FIGHT TONIGHT

Toby Irwin of Oakland, Who Will Meet Fred Landers in San Francisco Tonight as a Preliminary to the Hart-Johnson Go.

Tonight, at Woodward's Pavilion, San Francisco, Jack Johnson and Marvin Hart will face each other for a battle that is scheduled to go twenty rounds. Alex Greggains, the matchmaker of the San Francisco Club, which is handling the mill, will be the third man in the ring. Greggains stated last night that he will allow no loafing from Johnson, and that both men must fight all the time they are on their feet. With this assurance the public will be inclined to give the show liberal patronage.

Both men have trained hard and faithfully for the battle, and the outlook is that it will be one of the best between heavyweights that has taken place for a long time. Hart is a slashing fighter, with wonderful powers of endurance, and if he follows the plan of campaign which has been his in other battles he will give the colored man plenty to do. He isn't clever, as cleverness is judged in fighters but he has plenty of speed and will be mixing hits all the time. As a matter of cold fact, Hart's ability as a fighter is being underestimated here.

The new duck pin tourney, which was recently announced, will be started next Monday night at the Palace bowling alley. An entrance fee of $1 will be charged. Twelve of the games will be bowled on the Palace alleys and twelve games played on the Broadway alleys.

Last night, at the Syndicate alleys, the Syndicate team won on default, the Wolves falling to show up at 140 pounds. The game was finally won by a select team, picked from the boys present. The game was won by the Syndicates.

limit of this class, he has shown that he has no superiors. He is conceded to be the cleverest and fastest man in the ring today.

Attell once beat Buddy Ryan, who now claims the welterweight title, badly, and to show that he can do it again he offers to fight Buddy for any number of rounds if the latter will weigh in at 140 pounds ringside. At this weight Attell would be giving away fully eighteen pounds, as he never enters the ring weighing above 122.

In his recent fight with Eddie Hanlon the articles called for 130 pounds ringside. Attell got on the scales with all his clothes on and never budged the beam. Hanlon barely made the weight stripped, but nevertheless Attell beat him over the ring during the six rounds.

WHITE AND MITCHELL HERE

English Champion Arrives Ahead of Scheduled Time.

James White and Charley Mitchell arrived in San Francisco last night ahead of the scheduled time.

White does not look the part of a fighter. He is modest of demeanor, retiring and has the appearance of a young man who would make a hit in a Sunday School. Mitchell is the spokesman, and White seems glad to allow the former heavyweight champion the privilege of handling out any eloquence that is needed.

White is a bit pale in the face and does not appear to be in any too good condition. He is thirty-four years old and looks every day of his age. His height is five feet seven inches, his shoulders are broad and his build is very much on the greyhound line. He talks with a pronounced English accent when talking is necessary. He does not use a slang vocabulary and is very careful of what he says.

EAGER TO MEET BRITT.

"Yes, you all know just what I am here for and I fancy the press dispatches from the East look something like that. We had a rough voyage across the Atlantic and I was sick during the entire six days. In fact I am not over my illness yet, though a few days' rest will put me right again and I expect to be in the best of condition after a couple of weeks' training."

"I came a long way to fight Britt and I think I am going to win. I do not want to be boastful, but I have confidence in my ability. I have wanted to box Britt for a long time and now that the chance has arrived I feel that I will start in training at Larkspur right away, weigh 150 pounds now, but I will probably gain a little more."

White has met all corners in England for the last three years. Generally they were much heavier than I but I managed to beat them all. I have taken part in a championship event since I beat "Ske" Sullivan three years ago. There is nobody of my weight in England who I can box, so I simply had to come here to gain a little more.

On my way to San Francisco I was glad to hear that Britt had been taken care of. I was here in 1885, when he beat "Ske" Sullivan. He looks as young as he did then. I think he has grown a bit stout. Mitchell says White is the greatest light weight boxer in the world and feels sure he can beat Britt.

Mitchell says White is the greatest light weight boxer in the world and feels sure he can beat Britt.

NO SECRET TRAINING.

"That I talk of wanting to train in private is all nonsense," said Mitchell. "I will train in the open air, and the newspaper men to the training quarters, but we will not let in every Tom, Dick and Harry who comes along. We do not want to be bothered by the crowd, but the people will know how White is progressing from the press account."

Mitchell brings his son, Charles Jr., with him to his training. Young Mitchell is a sturdy chap, built on the go. He never recovered from the defeat, and died of a broken heart. Out on the Oregon river there is now a grave, secluded in the solitude of the forests.

"One of the proudest moments of my life was when I was asked to contribute something toward the fund for the support of the widow of my greatest and greatest opponent."

"For eight years I was called on to meet heavyweights and men weighing above 175 pounds. Middleweights of 150 and 160 pounds were few and far between, and they would not face the man who had defeated the once great champion. It was either a case of fighting the heavyweights or retiring, and as fighting was my business, I chose the former course."

CALLS MAHER A QUITTER.

"Perhaps the most memorable battle was with Peter Maher in New Orleans in 1888. Maher had come across the water from Ireland, hailed as the world's champion. He was met in New York by a delegation of men who were prepared to back him to the limit."

"We were matched to fight to a finish in New Orleans and Maher quit in the twelfth round. He was not game—the only Irishman I have ever seen who would not take a beating. He had fearfully punched power, and was big and strong, but as soon as I began to get to him he was attacked with fright and passed out of the ring."

"Four years later I fought Maher again, this time in Langtry, Tex. Peter still had the same old fear. We were boxing under clean-break rules, and he fouled me no less than four times in the first minute. Then he fouled me again, and I managed to get his jaw exposed for a second, and it was all over. I made about $12,000 in just thirty minutes, which, I guess, is laying it all over Mr. Morgan."

FIGHT WITH CORBETT.

"The battle which created perhaps more interest than any similar affair of its kind ever held was the one at Carson City, Nev., March 17, 1897, when James J. Corbett, then heavyweight champion of the world, and undoubtedly the cleverest boxer that the ring has ever known, and myself met for the championship. Corbett weighed 180 pounds and was one of the most perfectly developed and pro-

CORDELL-LONG FIGHT DATE IS CHANGED

Announcement was made today to the effect that the contest between Louie Long of this city and Jack Cordell of Marysville, scheduled to take place before the Phoenix Athletic Club of Marysville on April 22, had been changed to April 27.

This promises to be one of the most interesting glove contests which has been seen in this city for some time. Cordell defeated Jack Clifford of Grass Valley here several weeks ago, and showed himself to be very clever, as well as a strong fighter. He took terrible punishment from the Grass Valley youth, especially about the body, but he was always back at his opponent again. He made a good impression here and the local sports will be pleased to see him in the ring again.

Long is a local boy who has met and defeated some excellent men. He was defeated by Clifford, but he was in poor condition at the time. He will get out into the country to do his training, and as he has nearly a month to get fit it is expected that he will be able to put up a good scrap. He is a clever youth and has a good punch.

Long will be supported by Billy Bishop, who backed Clifford in his last go with Cordell. Bishop will also look after the advertising and newspaper work, as well as to help Long. Bishop is a valuable man to a fighter as he is able to look after every detail.

It is very probable that a special train will be run from Grass Valley to bring over the sports from that city and Nevada City.

athletic plan. He has been attending schools near Buffalo. He will don the mits with White and help get the English champion into condition.

Manager Jimmy Coffroth of the Yosemite Club announced last night that he would bring White and Britt together this afternoon at his office to sign articles for the fight. White will attend the fight, Johnson, mixup at Woodward's Pavilion, this evening, but vows he will not come through with a speech.

O'Rourke did not accompany White to this city. However, the noted manager and trainer will arrive within a few days to look over the boxer. O'Rourke will take charge of the training camp, while Mitchell will be the manager and do the general outside work. White will probably pick up some local boxers to help him along with the work of getting into condition.

PHILADELPHIA, March 28.—In a six-round bout last night at the Washington Sporting Club Rule Turner of California displayed his superiority over Joe Gans of Baltimore. It was not necessary at any time for Turner to show his true worth. It was evident that he could have won easily and within a brief period had he so desired. It was Turner's bout at every stage and the fact that Gans was on his feet at the finish was due to his opponent's generosity.

George Hackenschmidt, the world's champion wrestler, arrived in San Francisco yesterday from Australia. He will meet Frank Gotch and Tom Jenkins some time in the near future and somewhere in the East. In an interview yesterday he pooh-poohed the idea of meeting Jeffries in a boxing match.

"I am no fighter," he said.

In the antipodes Hackenschmidt found an opponent able to make a showing against him. Fiske, a champion of the vaudeville houses of Sydney, Melbourne and Adelaide consumed the two months' time he spent on the island continent.

The whole business was ventilated in the courts during the hearing of an action for damages brought against Hackenschmidt by his partner, Herbert Edwards, an English professional wrestler, taken out to Australia by the champion under an assumed name. Woods asked for $5000 damages because Hackenschmidt discharged him. He told the court that Hackenschmidt requested him to "go down" to Clarence Weber, a local light so that when Hackenschmidt came to wrestle Weber there should be some public excitement. Woods refused to do as asked because he reckoned himself immensely superior to Weber. "Why don't you do it, like Carkeek's men did?" asked Hackenschmidt. In surprise, Woods gave away the story of Hackenschmidt's proposal to a sporting newspaper and this caused an estrangement between the two. Hackenschmidt informed the court that he used to wrestle with Woods and the local athletes for seven and eight minutes, but he could have thrown them

'VARSITY IS HARD TO BEAT

California's Nine Defeats Pensacola By a Score of 7 to 5.

BERKELEY, March 28.—The Varsity easily won from the Pensacola team yesterday afternoon by the score of 7 to 5. The navy lads have a team that is good in spots, but it is not in California's class.

Heilmuller pitched the whole game for the Varsity, and his slow twisters were a puzzle to the navy boys who were able to find him for only eight scattered hits. Heime was wild at times, walking four men and hitting one, but he steadied down when necessary.

Barnegover pitched a fine game for Pensacola, and if he had had any kind of support in the infield there might have been a different story to tell. He allowed but seven hits and gave no bases on balls.

The Varsity got busy in the first inning and piled up enough runs to last them through an ordinary game. Barnegover had not steadied down to work yet, and he was found for three safe hits and aided by three errors. California put five men across the plate. In the third the Varsity scored two more runs with one hit, due to some ragged work on the part of the navy infield.

Pensacola scored one run in the second and one in the fifth. In the ninth inning Heilmuller sassed up a bit and allowed Pensacola to fill the bases. Jones came up and smashed out a pretty two-bagger, clearing the bases. Heime then got busy, and the next men up went out in one, two three order.

Following is the score:

WRESTLER WILL NOT FIGHT JIM JEFFRIES

Geo. Hackenschmidt, World's Champion, Says That He is Not a Boxer.

George Hackenschmidt, the world's champion wrestler, arrived in San Francisco yesterday from Australia. He will meet Frank Gotch and Tom Jenkins some time in the near future and somewhere in the East. In an interview yesterday he pooh-poohed the idea of meeting Jeffries in a boxing match.

"I am no fighter," he said.

In the antipodes Hackenschmidt found an opponent able to make a showing against him. Fiske, a champion of the vaudeville houses of Sydney, Melbourne and Adelaide consumed the two months' time he spent on the island continent.

The whole business was ventilated in the courts during the hearing of an action for damages brought against Hackenschmidt by his partner, Herbert Edwards, an English professional wrestler, taken out to Australia by the champion under an assumed name. Woods asked for $5000 damages because Hackenschmidt discharged him. He told the court that Hackenschmidt requested him to "go down" to Clarence Weber, a local light so that when Hackenschmidt came to wrestle Weber there should be some public excitement. Woods refused to do as asked because he reckoned himself immensely superior to Weber. "Why don't you do it, like Carkeek's men did?" asked Hackenschmidt. In surprise, Woods gave away the story of Hackenschmidt's proposal to a sporting newspaper and this caused an estrangement between the two. Hackenschmidt informed the court that he used to wrestle with Woods and the local athletes for seven and eight minutes, but he could have thrown them in half a minute if he had so minded. The judge in giving Woods a verdict for $65 damages, commented upon the wrestling matches as "farces."

After this telling public of the tricks of the trade interest in Hackenschmidt faded away and he came to America by an early boat.

MAKE CHANGE IN BUILDING

SCHOOL DIRECTORS DECIDE ON TERRA COTTA FOR FRANKLIN SCHOOL.

Believing that by changing the construction of the Franklin school from the ground line to the height of six or eight feet from artificial stone to that of terra cotta, the Board of Education at a meeting last night voted for the proposed change and will make the necessary modifications in the contracts.

The terra cotta from the Carnegie works, according to Director Isaac is the best he has ever seen and it was upon his recommendation that the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That Childs & Arlett, contractors for the brick, stone and terra cotta work on the Franklin school building be and they are hereby requested to substitute terra cotta for artificial stone work in this building, provided the same can be done without additional expense to the Board of Education. This resolution for change is made at the request of the architect, on the recommendation of the Committee on School Houses and Sites."

Superintendent McElmood explained that this change could be made without additional cost.

ACCEPT LAND.

In regard to a small lot of land near the Prescott school upon receiving an offer from the owner of the property at what it considers a reasonable figure, it was agreed to accept the proposition. The Board has been endeavoring to get the land for some time past but the amount asked was prohibitive. Last evening, however, the following communication was received:

"To the Honorable Board of Education, Gentlemen: Regarding the property adjacent to the Prescott School owned by me, I have decided to let you have the property for $1850 without the house, as I wish to retain the building. Respectfully yours,

"EMILY MOELLER."

It had been intimated by the Board that it would pay this sum for the property and the proposition was unanimously accepted.

TRACK TEAM TO TRAIN.

In order that the High School track team may have a place to train for a coming field day it addressed a communication to the Board asking the use of the High School track for practice each evening until April 8th.

On motion of Director Cliff the request was granted, providing that the school trainer was present to look out for the general exercise of the team.

ACCEPTS INVITATION.

The Board of Education received the following invitation to attend a meeting of the Oakland Club:

"The Oakland Club, Maple Hall, extends an invitation to the Board of Education to be present at a meeting next Wednesday afternoon at 8 p. m. Rev. Charles P. Wakley will talk upon 'Schools and Social Centers'."

"MRS. A. P. BUNNELL."

There being no other matters to come up for consideration the Board adjourned until next Monday night when the organization of the new Board will take place.

In the absence of President Wilcox, Director Hardy presided and the following directors were present: Cliff, Haskaway, Redington, Rogers, Pratt and Hardy.

DAM STILL STANDS THE STRAIN

GREAT CROTON RESERVOIR IS IN DANGER OF BREAKING ITS WALLS.

NEW YORK, March 28.—No break has yet occurred in the $5,000,000 dam forming the new Croton reservoir, which was threatened yesterday by a flood of water from the great Croton watershed. Workmen are reinforcing the structure at all points of danger and a patrol has been established to give immediate warning should a break threaten. The village of Croton Landing, with a population of 1,100, is one mile below.

When engineers in charge of the reservoir learned of the flood they hurried to the dam and threw open the gates, but the outflow to the Croton river and thence to the Hudson was insufficient to carry off the rapidly rising waters entering from an area of 266 square miles and steps were at once taken to avert a break.

It was expected that the dam would be completed late this summer. Experts had figured that it would take about two and a half years for the reservoir to fill so, less than a month ago, temporary gates were installed and closed, the reservoir was denuded of houses, trees and brush were burned over and the basin was allowed to begin filling.

The great outburst of the past winter and recent rains brought about conditions on which the engineers had not reckoned. The reservoirs began filling with amazing rapidity. The dam is nearly a quarter of a mile in length. With the unexpected flood it filled rapidly and reached the 100-foot mark before the danger was appreciated. The maximum which the dam was intended to hold when completed is 125 feet. The engineers believe that the danger will be only temporary unless continuous rains cause the water to rise beyond its present high mark.

NO GROUND FOR COMPLAINT, HE SAYS

NEW YORK, March 28.—President Castro has reiterated, according to a Herald dispatch from Caracas, his statements that there is no ground for complaint against Venezuela and no reason for intervention. He declares that attacks by the American press against his country and Government indicate complete ignorance of the facts concerning the debts of Venezuela and the settlements thereof. The debts are relatively small, the whole amount not exceeding $30,000,000.

All these debts have, the statement continues, been punctually paid since

Happy Homes

One of the essentials of the happy homes of to-day is a fund of information as to right living and the best methods of promoting health and happiness. With proper knowledge, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and are of not less value than the using of the most wholesome foods and the selecting of the best medicinal agents when needed. With the well-informed, medicinal agents are used only when nature needs assistance and while the importance of cleansing the system effectually, when bilious or constipated, has long been known, yet until within recent years it was necessary to resort to oils, salts, extracts of roots, barks and other cathartics which were found to be objectionable and to call for constantly increased quantities.

Then physicians having learned that the most excellent laxative and carminative principles were to be found in certain plants, principally in the leaves, the California Fig Syrup Co. discovered a method of obtaining such principles in their purest condition and of presenting them with pleasant and refreshing liquids in the form most acceptable to the system and the remedy became known as—Syrup of Figs—as figs were used, with the plants, in making it, because of their agreeable taste.

This excellent remedy is now rapidly coming into universal use as the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually without disturbing the natural functions and without unpleasant after effects and its use may be discontinued when it is no longer required.

All who would enjoy good health and its blessings should remember that it is the one remedy which physicians and parents well-informed approve and recommend and use which they and their little ones alike enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all reliable druggists, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, in original packages only, having the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs—and the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

The country has paid, and will continue to pay, the President concluded, a stipulated sum in the protocols which Minister Bowen arranged.

STUDENTS VOTE TO EXPEL GUILTY MEMBER

College Court Recommends the Dismissal of J. A. Harris.

BERKELEY, March 28.—The first act of the newly created undergraduate students affairs committee is to recommend the expulsion of J. A. Harris, the senior student who confessed to thefts committed in the University buildings.

The committee also decided to do all persons concerned in these or other thefts, and to request students who are robbed of their belongings to report the loss immediately to the committee and thus aid in the accomplishment of their purpose.

Resolutions were adopted as follows: one copy being sent to the faculty committee and one to Harris.

"To the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs—Dear Sirs: The undergraduate committee on student affairs met this afternoon to discuss the case of J. A. Harris, the senior student accused of theft from University buildings, and after communicating with Harris adopted the following resolutions:

GOOD BILLS PRESENTED AT TEN-CENT THEATRES.

Two large and enthusiastic audiences greeted one of the best bills at the Bell theater yet shown. It consists of eight numbers, and each and every number will do credit to any theater having a price of admission considerable more than that charged by the popular Bell.

The Ellis Sisters and Brown, a trio composed of two ladies and one gentleman, do some splendid singing and dancing. Their costumes are elegant and they certainly made a decided hit last night, securing several well-earned curtain calls.

The animated pictures were good, of the comedy order and caused considerable amusement.

Miss Jessie Dale made her reappearance at the absence of a week, and was again in good voice, having recovered from her severe cold. Willis and Collins made a decided hit in their comedy act, entitled "A Skinner," an act that was composed of rough purposes only and it certainly proved one of the most laughable acts yet shown at this theater.

The Bostonian Quartet, composed of four male voices, made a tremendous hit last night. Their voice blend beautifully, they all sing well have elegant stage settings, and a speaks well, for the management in procuring for their patrons so high class a feature act. Brun and Wells, contortionists, helped to make the bill a splendid one. The views of the world, and several other acts constituted a bill of rare excellence one that will no doubt pack this theater to the doors at every performance. The matinee has proven very attractive for ladies and children, and are well attended.

EMPIRE THEATER.

The Empire theater is presenting a very good bill this week. The new bill last evening was witnessed by two crowded houses, that number of performances being given. The star attraction are the three American Maids, in their beautiful singing sketch, entitled "The Sorcerer." They are exceedingly clever people with excellent voices and have made a good impression. Fern Hart, aerial artist, does some difficult work in the air, and the Phil has boxed with some of the best amateur fighters of Brooklyn, and it surprised his brothers when he announced his new intention of becoming a professional. Phil will train with Hughie in the three six-round bouts in which Hughie has been engaged to participate.

CITY COUNCIL TRANSACTS MUCH BUSINESS

Last Session of Present Governing Body is a Busy One—Routine Matters.

Olf Hansen, a grocer, last night petitioned the City Council to hereafter establish gas and electric light rates the same as is done in San Francisco. There was no discussion on the petition, which was referred to the Street Light Committee.

The communication of Hansen asked that the rates be made the same as in San Francisco.

PAY ENGINEERS.

The ordinance directing Engineers F. C. Turner, J. M. Howells and A. M. Hansen, to prepare the Bay Cities proposition, be paid the city's share of the expense, were finally passed. The experiment cost the city a little less than $3,000 for engineering expenses.

TRUNK LINES REACH AGREEMENT

NEW YORK, March 28.—After a series of negotiations extending for more than a year the New York trunk lines have reached an agreement to govern the storage and handling of grain at New York. The new conditions will become operative April 1st.

The roads signing the agreement are the New York Central system, Erie, Pennsylvania, Lackawanna, Lehigh, Baltimore & Ohio.

The new agreement defines the inspection, grading, consolidation and developing of all grain arriving by rail. Besides the various railroads, the New York Produce Exchange is a party to the agreement. This is the first revision of an agreement that was made on September 1, 1875. It provides that the railroad companies may put together in elevators, warehouses, boats or barges, provided by themselves for the purpose of grading of the same kind and grade, without regard to its ownership, after the same has been inspected and weighed in accordance with the agreement, but nothing therein shall be construed as depriving receivers of grain of the right of preserving the identity of ex-lake grain if they so elect, nor as depriving shippers of the right of preserving the identity of all rail grain consigned to this market if they shall so elect. Subject only to such uniform conditions as may be made by the railroad companies for that purpose.

All questions of difference between the New York Produce Exchange, or any member thereof and the railroad companies or either of them, parties to the agreement, growing out of the inspection and delivery of all grain arriving at the port of New York are to be settled by a private arbitration committee, consisting of three persons.

INDUSTRIAL DIVIDEND.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Industrial dividends in April will be the largest for that month in years, according to the statistics compiled by the Journal of Commerce. The declaration thus far announced represent a total of $23,910,563, which compares with $22,594,691 in 1904 and $19,874,919 in 1903.
